Lauren McCall

So how does she do it?

First, Lauren puts on her caftan and turban, then gazes deeply into her crystal ball...NOT!

Lauren is an international businesswoman, author and speaker who is one of the world's premier animal communicators and teachers. She is not trying to convert you, but she does have an important message to share, gleaned from over 20 years in the field.

INSIGHT AND INSPIRATION FOR A DIVIDED WORLD

Animals live with a sense of being and purpose that is free of politics and financial concerns. Talking and listening to them connects us with the earth in a way that helps to fill the empty spaces within ourselves. From playful to profound, this authentic perspective from Lauren's conversations with animals offers insight and inspiration on universal topics:

- How we can better connect; to each other and to the earth
- How can we rediscover the love and beauty all around us?
- The importance of finding your tribe
- How can we view death?
- Perspectives to help us navigate life

These messages from animals are a bridge connecting us to all of nature, a balm for our troubled world.
